Happy Father's Day! Interview with Cookham superdad James Cotter

It's Father's Day! And for the occasion, I caught up with James Cotter about his passion to lower our carbon footprint, his work as an ambulance service volunteer, and his active lifestyle allowing him to raise money for charity. Read more here.

Choir needs new voices

Holy Trinity Church Choir is looking for new members for the Boys' Choir and for the Girls' Choir. Any boy or girl aged 7+ is welcome to attend a practice. Please contact Sara (01628 522593; sarawood44@hotmail.com) if you would like to go along. The choirs cover a wide variety of music, from traditional anthems to "Jonah-Man Jazz", providing vocal training and a musical education for free – with the reward of pocket-money at the end of each term. Learn new skills, get creative and earn a qualification Artspiration are offering some lovely Art courses for children over the summer holiday. All participating children will also get to apply for an introductory Arts Award accredited by the Trinity College of London. Courses are held at St Peter's Church in Maidenhead, from 9am-3pm, on 27-30 July, 3-6 August, 10-13 August and 17-19 August. £160 with all materials included. Suitable for ages 5-7 and over. For more info, click here.

Vote for Elizabeth House

Elizabeth House in Cookham is one of three charities that have been nominated to become Maidenhead Sainsbury's charity of the year for 2015/2016. If Elizabeth House wins, Sainsbury's would help them to raise money and awareness for the charity. There will be a customer vote in-store and online at www.sainsburyslocalcharity.co.uk until 28 June, where you will have the chance to vote for your preferred charity. Please vote for the wonderful Elizabeth House and ask all your friends to vote also.
