

MARLOW ARCHAEOLOGY (MAS)

Registered Charity No. 1098081

EVENTS: SEPTEMBER & OCTOBER 2019

All talks below are at Liston Hall, Marlow SL7 1DD

Entrance: £4.50 - Members MAS/AiM £3 - Students £1.50

Free adjacent parking after 7pm

THURSDAY 12 SEPTEMBER 2019 at 8pm Anglo-Saxon Estates and Defences: thoughts on Wessex and the Thames Valley

Dr Ryan Lavelle

Reader in Early Medieval History,
University of Winchester
(A joint talk MAS/AiM)

This talk will investigate royal landholding in Anglo-Saxon Wessex, and politics and warfare in 9th to 11th century England. The subject has local appeal as Cookham was a royal estate in the Anglo-Saxon period, with an early minster, then a burghal hidage fort of Alfred the Great in defence against Viking raids.

An internationally-recognised expert in Anglo-Saxon Winchester and King Alfred, Ryan is the author of the award-winning book Alfred's Wars: Sources and Interpretations of Anglo-Saxon Warfare in the Viking Age. He was historical advisor for The Last Kingdom, the hit BBC series based on Bernard Cornwell's novels, telling the story of King Alfred and the birth of England.

THURSDAY 24 OCTOBER 2019 at 8pm Roman roads in Britain

Paddy Lambert

Oxford Archaeology East

The Roman road network in Britain is the epitome of Roman civilisation, bringing trade and opening Britain to an empire that stretched from the cold winds of Scotland, to the decadence of the orient. They remain one of the most enduring of archaeological legacies. Yet, they are still shrouded in myth and misconception.

The real story of the roads and where they eventually lead us is more surprising, and much more interesting. It's not 'what the Romans did for us' - it's how they did it.

ALL ENQUIRIES 01628 523896 email: marlowarch.mas@gmail.com

Marlow Archaeology (MAS) always welcomes new members!

Please watch for any programme changes: www.marlowarchaeology.org

MARLOW ARCHAEOLOGY (MAS)

Registered Charity No. 1098081

EVENTS: SEPTEMBER & OCTOBER 2019

All talks below are at Liston Hall, Marlow SL7 1DD

Entrance: £4.50 - Members MAS/AiM £3 - Students £1.50

Free adjacent parking after 7pm

THURSDAY 12 SEPTEMBER 2019 at 8pm Anglo-Saxon Estates and Defences: thoughts on Wessex and the Thames Valley

Dr Ryan Lavelle

Reader in Early Medieval History,
University of Winchester
(A joint talk MAS/AiM)

This talk will investigate royal landholding in Anglo-Saxon Wessex, and politics and warfare in 9th to 11th century England. The subject has local appeal as Cookham was a royal estate in the Anglo-Saxon period, with an early minster, then a burghal hidage fort of Alfred the Great in defence against Viking raids.

An internationally-recognised expert in Anglo-Saxon Winchester and King Alfred, Ryan is the author of the award-winning book Alfred's Wars: Sources and Interpretations of Anglo-Saxon Warfare in the Viking Age. He was historical advisor for The Last Kingdom, the hit BBC series based on Bernard Cornwell's novels, telling the story of King Alfred and the birth of England.

THURSDAY 24 OCTOBER 2019 at 8pm Roman roads in Britain

Paddy Lambert

Oxford Archaeology East

The Roman road network in Britain is the epitome of Roman civilisation, bringing trade and opening Britain to an empire that stretched from the cold winds of Scotland, to the decadence of the orient. They remain one of the most enduring of archaeological legacies. Yet, they are still shrouded in myth and misconception.

The real story of the roads and where they eventually lead us is more surprising, and much more interesting. It's not 'what the Romans did for us' - it's how they did it.

ALL ENQUIRIES 01628 523896 email: marlowarch.mas@gmail.com

Marlow Archaeology (MAS) always welcomes new members!

Please watch for any programme changes: www.marlowarchaeology.org